This is a special story.

But truly special.

It has nothing to do with anything you've read so far.

It's not the story of a wizard or a witch.

It's not about planets, moons, or space travel.

No dinosaurs.

Nor does it tell the life of a colorblind Dalmatian trainer.

I'll only tell you that this story is hypnotic.

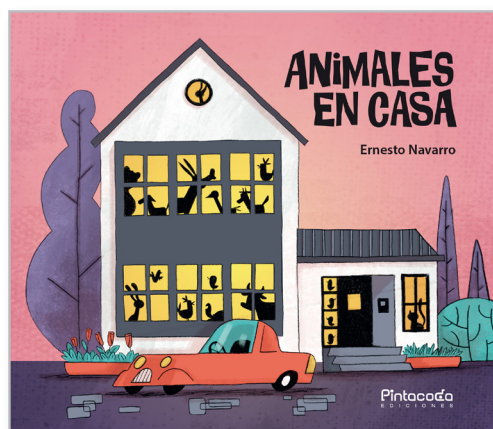

If you want to know more, you'll have to dive into its pages.

So, when I count to three, you're going to read this book:

One.

Two.

And...

TITLE: BLUE MONDAY

AUTHOR: ERNESTO NAVARRO

CATEGORY: CHILDREN'S COMIC

FORMAT: 68 PAGES, 19X26 CM, PAPERBACK

RRP: 15 €

Today is the third Monday of January, Blue Monday, the saddest day of the year.

Ana is grounded —no going out, no TV, and no video games— because she didn't greet the nosy Mrs. Francisca. The afternoon seems like it will be very boring, but something surprising happens that changes everything.

Boredom doesn't have to be negative; it can be the trigger for play and creativity. This comic is a manifesto for fantasy and adventure in the age of screen addiction.

For readers aged 6 and up.
